Dr. John Alderdice speaking after meeting with the other three constitutional political leaders and the Prime Minister at 10, Downing St., said: -

- "Prior to this meeting I said that my main concern was to ensure this was not a one off meeting but that the Prime Minister was prepared to make the problems of N.I. a priority item on his agenda. Whilst it would be wrong to over state what was achieved by this meeting we do at least come away with a commitment from the Prime Minister that he will take a personal interest and involvement in our problems.

Dr Alderdice concluded: -

"This meeting is just the first of a number of meetings between the Prime Minister and N.I.'s constitutional Party Leaders, by this agreement some life has been breathed back into the body politic in N.I. and our people have been given some sense of hope.

DR. ALDERDICE WILL BE AT HOME FROM 10.30 A.M. 793097
J.N. This has gone out to Media plus notice to G.M.U. re to-morrow morning.
