

Hume.

Set out in their analysis of the problem.

"Accommodation of difference + agreement" are the requirements. Strand 2 is for them the heart of the problem.

Leads positively to the Alliance Comments in Social + Economic problems.

Capacity to = address all issues.

- harmonious working together.
 - provision of recess.
 - etc.
- principles of new arrangements.

- referendum - requiring a "yes" from each.

P. Mayhew.

Enters now as a participant - facilitator of agreement. Want an agreement.

- 1) Returning Parent Authority - responsibilities
- 2) Widespread support
- 3) Wider framework of stable relationships
- 4) Benefit of mutual understanding + cooperation.

- Obligations:
- 1) whatever is agreed, must accord with international obligations
 - 2) - possibilities for Euro-benefit (*)
 - 3) New agreement is possible
 - 4) ~~SSS~~ thinks it likely that he will remain responsible for finance etc.
 - 5) Some issues - harmonious relationships.
 - practical cooperation.
 - no obstacles.
 - security cooperation
 - constitutional issues - referred to.
- present constitutional realities to be unambiguous.

6.7.92

J. Wilson

Starts with Thanks to the Chairman.

Relates the political division to the security problem.

The people want peace & we have taken risk - fear of hope. Fear of failure & political despair.

Believes that the authority & leadership of ~~the~~ the others gives a possibility

We do not agree to each other on the problem.

Government of Ireland Act - ignored the reality of the other. ^{process of mutual ignorance to be corrected by mutual understanding.} Definition of the problem.

Influenced by close bonds to nationalists in Northern Ireland & throughout the world. The nationalists want to extend!! "We cannot afford to lose a single Irishman"

Forum Report

Failure of previous attempts (political, administrative & symbolic representation.)

Nationalists - accept differences. // angles & division over the British control of part of Ireland.

An unambiguously expressed agreed statement in respect of the constitutional (present status) of position of Northern Ireland. Paris Article 2 & 3.

Assumption about the model of NI institutions.
