

John

Official unionists, including Jim Molyneux, will come to Dublin and stay with it there.

In my view we ~~should~~ ought to have full discussion to sit in committee there, if we want to - as the UOPs ~~do~~ (so as to avoid any ~~implies~~ inference that the Dublin session is in any way 'special') Paisley says it can be done only. I suggest the answer is that if he, or ~~we~~, want that, they must come and try to secure it there. If not, they ~~must~~ have no locus standi.

Patrick