My position on AI Agreement

1. Extradition

It is unclear a precept is there, but if they do not go for it then a coding in Anglo-Irish relation will provide a window of opportunity for discussion on long as the things stick to their guns. Any weakness will be fatal - the SDCP will also want to talk to keep the AI on course. - This disagreement is breaking the Agreement.

2) Duplicate Courts

De-scheduling of some cases may be possible this would make a plurality of judges.

3) Declaration against Violence

On its own this has little value, but in the overall context of the agreements which we have made it could be very helpful. Explanation or disqualification.

4) Tally - how are they proceeding?

- proposal for a formal mechanism for consultation prior to the review. - should be discussed in the Party leaders.
- I have written to them.
