Dear John.

I should like to invite you to meet me, as soon as is convenient, so that I can explain to you where I believe we have got to with the political Talks and how we carry them forward. In particular, I should like to look in some detail at the themes to have emerged from Michael Ancram's bilaterals and what they mean in terms of the further work that needs to be done. I should like to discuss some notions with you across all three Strands.

If you would be happy with this I should be grateful if you would get in touch with my office, Mrs Sarah Denvir on 071 210 6460.

I am writing in similar terms to Jim Molyneaux and John Hume.

*Yours
Patrick*
