Dear Lord Alderdice,

During discussion in the Plenary yesterday, Michael Ancram proposed that the venue for the meeting offered by Sir George Quigley and other business leaders next Monday at 10 am should be changed to another Government office outside the talks premises to reflect the nature of the meeting as being outside the Negotiations and being on the basis of individual invitations to individual party leaders rather than as a group representing the Negotiations. You will probably now have received an invitation from Sir George and the others, issued before that discussion.

The Minister has asked me to let you know that the venue for the meeting will now be Conference Room D4.2, in the Department of Health and Social Services' accommodation in Castle Buildings. The time remains the same. Those who would like to attend should go to the main entrance to Castle Buildings, a short way down the hill from the entrance to the talks building.

Yours sincerely
Angela Dullaghan
