

F324

FORUM FOR PEACE AND RECONCILIATION

Fortieth Plenary Meeting, Friday, 19 January, 1996
at 10.45 a.m. in St. Patrick's Hall, Dublin Castle

Public Session

A G E N D A

10.45 a.m.

Oral presentation of Submission by the Irish Episcopal Conference of the Roman Catholic Church.

Cardinal Cahal B. Daly, Archbishop of Armagh

Bishop Donal Murray, Auxiliary Bishop of Dublin

Rev. Martin O'Callaghan, C.S.S., Principal, St. Mary's College of Education, Belfast

Sister Eileen Randles, IBVM, Secretary-General - Catholic School Management Association

Jerome Connolly, Executive Secretary, Irish Commission for Justice and Peace

Mrs. Maura Kiely, founder member of CROSS, cross-community group for bereaved families

Ms. Nuala Kelly, Co-ordinator, Irish Commission for Prisoners Overseas

Ms. Mary Lyons, Chief Executive, Springvale Training Centre, West Belfast

Seamus O'Hara, former Chairman of Standing Advisory Committee on Human Rights, Northern Ireland

11.15 a.m. Questions from Forum Delegations

(10 minutes for each larger delegation, 7 minutes for each smaller. In practice this means a single - not multi-part-question, not shared among members but it might, if questions are kept brief, allow for a supplementary question within the allotted time-slot).

About 1 p.m. LUNCH

Note

As this session is being televised live on RTE 1, members are requested to be punctual and to be in their seats by 10.40 a.m., as the session will commence at the scheduled time of 10.45 a.m.

Forum Secretariat
15 January, 1996