PRESS RELEASE

Two Governments must meet urgently - Alderdice

Alliance Leader, Dr John Alderdice, has called on the British and Irish Governments to meet as a matter of the greatest urgency.

Dr Alderdice said:

"It is only a matter of sober observation to say that the situation in Northern Ireland is deteriorating rapidly. One of the few positive things which can immediately be done to halt the descent into nightmare is for the two governments to meet, resolve their differences and start to pull together again. A meeting of the Anglo-Irish Conference is now a matter of the greatest urgency. The potential danger of the current situation can scarcely be over-stated."
