

mingling with the people, increasing the volume of business, we will be caring for the interests of the state.

Mr. WILLIAMS. It is now about five o'clock, and there are eight more sections of this bill. It was only laid on our desks this afternoon, and it is one of the most important measures that this Convention will have to deal with. It will be impossible for us at this sitting to consider this bill fully and report it back to the Convention with the recommendation that it do pass and give it that consideration which it should have. I move that the committee do now rise, report progress and ask leave to sit again.

Mr. BLEWITT. I move to adjourn.

The motion prevailed, and the Convention adjourned.
