

houses, the Justices may hold the terms of the Supreme Court provided by this section, at other convenient places, to be fixed by a majority of said Justices. After six years, the Legislature may alter the provisions of this section.

Section 9. The Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction to review, upon appeal, any decision of the District Courts, or the judges thereof. The Supreme Court shall also have original jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and habeas corpus; and all writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction.

Section 10. The Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction to hear claims against the State, but its decisions shall be merely recommendatory; no process in the nature of execution shall issue thereon; they shall be reported to the next session of the Legislature for its action.
