There will be a good sized delegation of Knight Templars and ladies leave here on Wednesday evening next on the Burlington route—which is the official line for Wyoming. Dr. Birney, the specialist, treats the nose, throat, eye and ear only, and in these he is thorough. The doctor makes no charges for consultation. Room 1, Hotel Normandy. THE END IS NEAR.

The Constitution Will be Ready for Signing Monday. A Proposition Striking at Mormonism Defeated. No Civil Service and Retrenchment Unnecessary. A Wyoming Delegation to Visit Washington This Winter.

ABOUT THROUGH. The labors of the constitutional convention are practically completed. The revision committee will have the instrument in shape for signatures at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning when it will be read as an entirety and approved. Several members compelled to leave the city today have attached their signatures to a blank sheet. Judge Holden was the first to do this and was applauded. In husky tones the big man whose heart is large and in the right place thanked the convention for its kindness to him. President Brown responded appropriately. OTHER FINAL WORK. The committees on addresses to congress and the people are in session and the members are working like Trojans. The people will be told that after the first year state government will be at least $17,000 cheaper than territorial vassalage. The saving on salaries of county officers is estimated at $47,000 annually. TOUCHING MORMONISM. Ever since the convention commenced its labors certain persons have daily anticipated the presentation of a proposition which would be a direct slap at the Mormons of Uinta, Sweetwater and Fremont counties. Days passed and the subject was not broached, to the satisfaction of some and disappointment of others, but yesterday Mr. Burritt of Johnson made the issue by introducing the appended file: "No person shall be permitted to vote or serve as a juror or hold any civil office who has at any place been convicted of an infamous crime and who has not been restored to rights of citizenship, or who is a bigamist or polygamist or is living in what is known as patriarchal, plural or celestial marriage, or in violation of any law of this state or of the United States forbidding any such crime." The convention voted to consider the bill without committee reference and it looked like a typical piece of railroad legislation when Mr. Clark, whose manner of argument is clear and convincing, protested. He requested postponement as a concession to delegates who did not comprehend the scope of the proposition and to gentlemen on the floor who could dispel fallacies about the Mormon element. Mr. Riner pressed for immediate action, but the convention reconsidered the vote by which it had agreed to vote finally on the proposition at once and sent it to the suffrage committee. Early in the afternoon session Mr. Burritt, a member of the committee on franchise, created not a little surprise by reading the following unanimous report: "The committee has carefully considered this entire matter, has consulted eminent legal authority and is of the unanimous opinion that the matters embraced in the proposition are fully covered by provisions already incorporated in the constitution. Your committee is further of the opinion that the application of the file is neither necessary nor expedient." Mr. Burritt, whose method on the floor is lucid and forceful explained, making the many admissions that he was convinced of the facts as given in the report and that until he had investigated the subject with the assistance of competent persons he had not understood the situation in Wyoming. The Mormon vote was only 1 per cent and persons amenable to law in this direction could be punished under the United States statutes, the constitution and laws of Wyoming. NO CIVIL SERVICE. This resolution by Mr. Hoyt was rejected: "The legislature shall make such provision by law to secure the best available service for all minor places in the state, counties or municipalities regardless of purely political considerations." RETRENCHMENT UNNECESSARY. Here is another deceased Hoyt resolution: "To appoint a committee of five to review the entire field of the constitution with a view to reducing the expenses of the state government as shall be practicable." FROM JUDGE CARROLL. In a neat note Justice W. P. Carroll acknowledged the receipt of a resolution extending the thanks of the convention for his services in obligating the members. Mr. Carroll added that he appreciated the high compliment paid him and wished to remark he deemed it to be the sentiment of Wyoming people that the diligent and efficient labors of the convention would be approved at the polls. LEGISLATIVE TERMS. A final amendment to the chapter on legislation provides that of the first state senators elected half shall serve two years and half four. Thereafter senators are to be elected for four years. A representative term will be two years. TO GO TO WASHINGTON. Mr. Campbell had several days ago given notice that he would move for the selection of a committee to journey to Washington during the next session of congress and urge the admission of Wyoming. The number was fixed at ten and the motion carried. On the suggestion of several delegates it was decided that the committee membership be confined to constitution framers and that they be empowered to appoint substitutes. On motion of Mr. Riner, President Brown was made a member of the congressional committee. After nineteen other nominations had been made the matter of recommending an available non-partisan delegation was left to a committee of five, Judge Brown to be chairman. These are the other members: Messrs. Riner, Elliott, Conway and Organ. CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE. President Brown suggested the appointment of a convention committee to urge the people to turn out and vote for the constitution. The idea was endorsed by several delegates and on Mr. Johnston's motion the entire convention was made an executive committee. MORE TO WASHINGTON. On Mr. Clark's motion Governor Warren has been requested to appoint a committee of ten persons to assist Wyoming at Washington. Fine Water. There is now at the service of the patrons of the city system a superior quality of water suitable for all purposes and the quantity is unlimited. There was twenty-four inches in the thirty inch pipe yesterday. This filled the city mains and sent a heavy overflow stream into the reservoir immediately north of town. A number of hydrants in various parts of the city were flushed yesterday to dispose of the old water and this morning the entire line will be drained. It will no longer be necessary to wash city water before using it and skimmers and disinfectants may be thrown away. Real Estate. These warranty deeds were recorded at the county clerk's office yesterday: John Roberts to V. Baker, portion of lot 3, block 564, $1 00. John Roberts and C. D. Kelley and wife to V. Baker fractional lot 2, block 564, 1 00. T. Dyer and wife to Wm. H. Force, 400 acres of land in this county, 2,000 00. Postoffice Hours. A change in the Sunday general delivery hours at the postoffice has been made. Hereafter the windows will be open from 9 to 9:30 a. m. and from 2:30 to 3 p. m. A New Land Company. The Natrona Land company, organized at Geneva, Neb., has filed its articles of incorporation at the office of the territorial secretary. The capital stock is $200,000. V. C. Shickley, E. K. Cobb and C. W. Shickley are named as a board of trustees for the ensuing year. Indictment Doubtful. The Cabon county grand jury which will of necessity investigate the lynching of Ella Watson (Cattle Kate) and James Averill has been announced. Several gentlemen from that section now in the city express with not a little assurance the opinion that the jury will fail to indict. These are the names: John Miliken, Carlson; W. B. Huges, Saratoga; J. H. Mullison, Saratoga; Alfred Crone, Fort Steele; John Mahoney, Rawlins; C. W. Burdick, Saratoga; Robert Taylor, Rawlins; H. A. Anderson, Dixon; W. S. Evans, Rawlins; T. J. Dickerson, Fort Steele; W. W. Jaycox, Casper; R. T. Rankin, Fort Steele; James Candler, Rawlins; Charles Hardin, Saratoga; Harry Hines, Saratoga; John C. Dyer, Rawlins. Will be Prosecuted. Peter Appel who made a brutal assault on W. P. Hunter at Green River three months ago, has been indicted for an "attempt to commit manslaughter." He defugured Hunter frightfully with a cleaver. A peculiarity of the Wyoming criminal code has a significant bearing on this notable case. The maximum penalty for manslaughter is ten years, for attempt to commit manslaughter, fourteen years. Mrs. Lewis' Lectures. Mrs. A. K. Lewis, who gave to the ladies of Cheyenne, some weeks ago her "Bird's-eye Glimpse of American Literature" has returned to the city and is now meeting with fine success in organizing circles for study in this line. By request she repeats her course of reading, commencing Monday, Sept. 30 at 8 p. m., in Keeffe's hall. All lovers of literature are invited. Course of four lectures, $1.00; single tickets at door, 25 cents. To-day's Ball Game. This afternoon's ball game will be a benefit contest, a testimonial to Jimmie Millett, the sturdy catcher who became so popular here this season. There should be a big attendance. Street cars will run to the fair grounds as usual. These are the nines: Positions. Watts.....p.....Rapp Millett.....c.....Lyott Hengle.....1st b.....Van Eyra E. Stow.....2nd b.....Morfort O'Brien.....3rd b.....Williams McGray.....ss.....Erswell Hainesworth.....rf.....McClure McKay.....cf.....J. Stow Stabler.....rl.....Dacey Robbed on the Train. At the depot yesterday morning Paine Allen complained to Officer Dellar that he had been robbed of $70 during the night by Jesse Applegate, a fellow passenger. Both were traveling eastward in an emigrant sleeper and occupied the same bunk. Dellar started to the city jail with Applegate and on the way met Deputy Sheriff Thomasson. The latter conducted the search of the prisoner, who all along insisted that he had but $4 all told. This sum was found in his wallet, but three $20 gold pieces jingled in his sock when he reluctantly complied with an order to take off his shoes. Allen's money was gold and the evidence against Applegate seems conclusive. He will be given a hearing to-morrow. Big bargain in Underwear and Hosiery. THE FAIR.
