THE BEST SEATTLE

Corner Second and James Street. We quote the following description of the scenery seen from West Seattle from article in the San Francisco Journal of Commerce.

OUR SEATTLE FRIENDS, we trust, will consider a stranger within their gates offering this gratuitous advice, but we take an exceptional interest in the truly scenic surroundings of this country "West End" and must run the risk of being considered "gushing" in our praise by some, and "cheeky" in our unsought advice by others.

PUSING THE SCHEME. From one tone of the information from Olympia, it is evident that the advocates of corporation and selfish interests in the tide lands are making a hard fight for delay. They will spare no effort, fair or foul, to postpone final determination of the question and to throw it over for disposition at the hands of the legislature.
