OFFICIAL PAPER OF STARK COUNTY

Saturday, July 6, 1889.

THE editors of North Dakota organized a press association at Bismarck on the 3rd. The move has our hearty endorsement. Circumstances prevented our attending the meeting, but we shall send the necessary amount and "jine the gang."

THE Grand Forks Plaintealer has Sioux Indian commission: The total number of signatures to be secured is 3909. Of these 1141 have been had, so that the remainder will undoubtedly soon be found upon the parchment. Of the agencies to sign with their male population we have Pine Ridge 1261; Standing Rock, 1999; Cheyenne, 750; Lower Brule, 306; Crow Agency, 282. General Crook has done splendid service and South Dakota ought to be under everlasting obligation to him. Won't Pierre kick up its heels and sing the doxology when it is known that the gates of the reservation are thrown open!

THE members of the constitutional convention, now in session at Bismarck, will not have served their constituents well unless they provide for county representation, at least in the lower house of the legislature. This they should do and they might go a step farther and get out of the old ruts of constitution makers by adopting the Bismarck Tribune plan of providing for only one legislative body and make it representative in the broadest sense of the term. This would be a departure from the old stereotyped plan of a house and senate, or two branches of the legislature, as is the case with all the states now in the anion. True, the plan, if adopted, would not furnish so many offices to politicians, but would better answer the purposes of the people and has many advantages worthy of the consideration of the convention.

THE Reporter respectfully but earnestly directs the attention of Mr. Secretary Noble to the fact that there are upwards of one hundred thousand It was hard to get because there were preemption entries pending in the many candidates and Johnston has many friends. The Reporter would likewise respectfully, but nevertheless carnestly, direct the attention of Mr. Secretary Noble to the further fact that most, if not all, of the other divisions of the General Land Office are also behind in the transaction of the public business to a proportionate extent, and the time the following amounts: Arizona, $5,000; California, $10,000; Colorado, $15,000; Dakota, $25,000; Idaho, $10,000; Minnewhen the office will be in a condition to dispatch current business is so exceedingly remote by reason of this accumulation of business, that no one now living will experience the felicity of seeing it. The Reporter respectfully but earnestly directs the attention of Mr. Secretary Noble to the fact that all this accumulation of business, this inability to catch up so as to prosecute the pressing current business of the public, and this disastrous prostration of the most vital financial and material interests of thousands of settlers upon the public domain, are attributable entirely, absolutely and unqualifiedly to the existence of a system of prosecuting the public business that has not a single feature to recommend its continuance. and everything obnoxious to call for its abolition-a system of rules, and methods concocted under them, devised, it would seem, expressly to postpone, delay and check the operations of the General Land Office at Washington, as well as the whole public land service of the country. The Reporter respectfully but earnestly urges in behalf of all who have business relations with the General Land Office, that the Hon. Secretary of the Interior will find it convenient. expedient and necessay to an efficient public service to abrogate, rescind and utterly abolish every feature of the system that has wrought so much disaster, and wipe out root and branch every rule and method of enforcing it that have caused the intoing le. un-reasoable and unnecessary decays in South Dakota Constitution Framers. BISMARCK, N. D., July 1,--The constitutional convention of North Dakota meets in Bismarck next Thursday. There are tifty-six Republicans and nineteen Democrats in the convention. Among the Republicans there are a few Republican Prohibitionists and one, Knud Knowland of Traill county, classed as a Prohibitionist. Few of the delegates can be classed as politicians. A large majority are farmers. There are about twenty lawyers, the most prominent of whom are Democrats. The canvass for president of the convention has not been very active and it does not look as if it would be very warm at any time. The candidates named so far are F. B. Fancher of Jamestown, II. F. Miller of Fargo, M. N. Johnson of Lakota, and R. N. Stevens of Lisbon. The other officers of the convention cannot be even guessed. Work of the South Dakota Convention Stoux Falls, S. D., June 30.-The South Dakota convention will have little to do. When the people on May 14 ratified the Sioux Falls constitution of 1885 they did not leave much for the delegates whom they elected at the same time to accomplish in the line of consti-tution making or constitution mending. 1885, is likely to be the coming man, but Col. John L. Jolley of Vermillion, and C. G. Sherwood of Clark are in the field.

It has been said that the convention will have nothing but mere clerical work to do. There are some who favor doing more than has been referred to. Of course the people have ratified the constitution as it is, and that is in favor of letting it stand as it is. But under the terms of the omnibus bill it is to be submitted for ratification again on Oct. 1. Since this is so, and since there are several things which would better be changed, it is held that these changes would better be made now rather than that amendments be made almost so soon as admission is secured. Unless the convention does proceed to discuss the different provisions of the constitution its sessions will be tame. GREAT PREPARATIONS

Being Made for the G. A. R. Encampment at Milwankee. MILWAUKEE, July 2.—The various committees of the Milwaukee posts are working like beavers-or badgers-in making everything ready for the coming national encampment. The committee on vocal music has sent out a request the patriotic and war songs, so that they can sing these songs without words or the music. It is expected to have a monster male chorus in one or more concerts at the encampment, and many of the visiting singers will be asked to participate.

As to the programme of the encamp ment many inquiries have been received, The grand parade is fixed for the 27th, and the business meetings occur on the following day. The naval battle will probably occur on the 29th, though this is not definitely settled. The whole city of Milwaukee will belong to the boys during encampment week, and they will be there if they can get there.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 29.—The state of Iowa has not a single dollar of interest bearing debt outstanding. State Treasurer Twombly's recently issued call for the redemption of outstanding state warrants to the amount of $95,000 matured Wednesday, and more than ample funds were in the treasury to extinguish the state's indebtedness. These are the last redeemable warrants of which there is any record on the state

MINNEAPOLIS, July 2.—A call has been ssued for a state Prohibition convention at Harmonia hall, Minneapolis, July 23 und 24, beginning at 10 o'clock on the first named day. Its object is to discuss principles and methods, plan the work of the year, elect the state central committee.

KILRAIN VS. SULLIVAN.

Preparations for the Mill Progressing-NEW ORLEANS, July 2.-The friends of John L. Sullivan are making preparations to receive him at Spanish Fort, where he will spend Friday and Saturday. The twenty-four-foot ring in which the fight will take place will be surrounded by another ring six feet distant. Within this will be seated the representatives of the press, the seconds, bottleholders, etc., and a cordon of po-lice. Outside of this will be another ring at a distance of forty-five feet, within which the holders of all tickets will be seated. Police will also guard this ring both within and without to prevent interference with the tighters or their seconds. A passage way will be formed to allow the principals to enter, jumping over the ropes of the outer rings. Professor Lems F. Butler will construct the inner ring. The ropes used in the Sullivan-Ryan fight will be used in the coming battle. The inner ring will be guarded by Capt. Jamieson, of Meridan, Miss., commanding twenty resolute Mississippians. There will also be a reinforcement o forty picked men from this city who will co-operate with Jamieson's men in preserving order, Thousands Will Attend. Up to this time notices have been received that parties from Hazelhurst, Vicksburg, Greenville, Memphis, Jackson, Tenn., Cairo, Houston, Gaiveston, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Pensacola, Jacksonville, New York, Chicago, Montgemery, Denver, Mobile, Birmingham, and St. Louis have been made up to witness the fight, aggregating about 2,000. Although there is great interest in the fight, betting men are still wary. How They Will Go.

It is understood that a train to convey ress reporters, telegraph operators, the backers of the men and other interested parties will leave here between 3 and 5 o'clock a. m. for the ringside. In all likelihood, there will be a car attached to the train on which Kilrain will ride. The improvements have been in contemplation ever since the cholera epidemic of 1884, which so thoroughly demonstrated their necessity, but it was not until two months ago that the Italian parliament passed a bill au-

NEW YORK, July 2.—A letter from Rome dated June 18, and published here Sunday, alleged that Archbishop Corri-gan had been summoned to Rome by the pope. The letter went on to say that the pope intended to make Archbishop Corrigan a cardinal and that he would surely be included by the pope among the next batch of cardinals created. The archbishop, according to this letter, was to arrive in Rome toward the middle or latter end of July. The main reason for making the archbishop a cardinal, the letter said, was because he was in accord with the pope in the determination of the latter to have foreign professors in the Catholic university at Washington.
