The following is the remarks of Hon.
J. W. Poe before the constitutional convention at Boise City on the Mormon question, which we clip from the Statesman:

Question returned on passage of the 4th section.
Mr. Poe said the democrats had fought this section, in good faith, because they feared its adoption might endanger the ratification of the constitution by the people. But the republicans thought differently, and had insisted upon its radical proposition. He was with them for crushing Mormonism; and should now yield his opposition and should do everything in his power for carrying this constitution with the people He was for statehood; and as he went home from this convention not a whisper would be heard from him against this Constitution. He should do all he could to secure its adoption by the people.

And he now asked his democratic friends to unite in support of this section, and of this Constitution. We have tried to do our duty, as we understood it, in amending and modifying this section; but other judgement has prevailed. To that we yield, and henceforth give this Constitution our united support.
[Great applause.]

On the passage of the 4th section, the vote stood, yeas 42, nays 10.
On the passage of the entire article, yeas 45, nays 7.

THE WYOMING HANGING.

DENVER, Col., July 25.—A special from Douglas, Wyo., regarding the lynching of James Averill and Ella Watson on Sweetwater last Saturday for cattle rustling, says the man and woman were on their way to Caspar and were surprised by the lynchers near Sweetwater and while in the act of hanging them a man named Buchanan, a friend of Averill's, appeared on the scene and fired into the mob, wounding John Durbin in the hip. The lynchers then pursued Buchanan, who rode fifty miles to Caspar and told his story. Warrants were issued for the lynchers and a deputy sheriff with a posse of seven men started for the scene of the tragedy, arriving there Monday morning, where they found the bodies of Averill and Emma Watson hanging from the limb of a pine tree. Their tongues were protruded from their lips, their eyes were hanging out upon their cheeks and their faces swollen and discolored almost beyond recognition.
Judging from the signs a desperate struggle had taken place on the cliff and both the man and woman had fought for their lives until the last. Their bodies were cut down and taken to Healy's ranch, where the coroner impaled a jury. The verdict was to the effect that the deceased met death at the hands of John Durbin, Tom Dunn, J. R. Bothwell, Sam Johnson and a man named McLean. The two bodies were put in a box and buried on the ranch. The sheriff then proceeded to the ranch of Tom Dunn, who readily gave the names of the other lynchers, Dunn was taken in custody, and the party went from there to Bothwell's ranch, where he also was arrested. Both prisoners admitted that they assisted in the hanging and when informed that they would be taken to Rawlins Bothwell told the sheriff to take a look there on his way back to Caspar, as he would likely find six or eight more cattle rustlers hanging by the neck. The two prisoners were taken to Rawlins today, where they waived examination and were bound over in $5,000. It is thought Sheriff Watson will reach there some time to-morrow with the other lynchers, all of whom participated in the hanging and are among the foremost cattlemen in the Sweetwater valley.
Durbin lives in Cheyenne and is one of the pillars of the church. Bothwell is the son of a wealthy business man and Tom Dunn, an old pioneer scout known all over the west.—Review.

TACOMA NEWS ITEMS.

TACOMA, July 25.—At the meeting today the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce a committee composed of L. E. Samson, John McCready and Mayor Wheelwright, was appointed to call upon "Sunset" Cox, and ask him to appoint an evening most convenient to him to receive the hospitalities of the chamber.

David E. Lattine, the murderer of Charles C. Grant, who was brought to Tacoma last night and placed in the county jail, has engaged as counsel Judge Sears and W. J. Sessions. By advice of his counsel, he refuses to talk to reporters.
It is understood that Lattine's plea will be self defense.

Hon. A. M. Cannon, of Spokane Falls, who has been spending a week in Olympia, arrived in the city this morning.
He returns to Spokane Falls to-morrow.
Mr. Cannon is a leading candidate for United States senator from Eastern Washington.

Work will begin to-morrow on the railroad from Union bay, on lake Washington, to a point on the lake twelve miles south, a large part of the road being within the city limits. It will be a standard gauge track and equipped with light locomotives. The entire road is on the east side of the crest of hills that runs through Seattle. San Francisco and local capitalists are promoters of the scheme. The company will file articles of incorporation under the name of the Seattle Railroad company.

From Walla Walla.

WALLA WALLA, July 26.—A cottage at Sixth and Alder, belonging to J. F.
Coyer, and occupied by W. H. Gillespi, manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and family, was destroyed by fire today. The contents were saved.
The fire was evidently incendiary. The building caught from an unoccupied cannery adjacent. The losses will probably be $3,000; insurance, $2,100.

The insurance agents meet today to discuss the situation. The town is full of thieves and hard characters, who, in spite of the efforts of the police, hang around, committing highway robbery.

Struck by Lightning.

BUTTE, July 25.—John Moriarty, a section foreman on the Montana Central railroad, while at work on his station about five miles from Elk Park station, was struck by lightning about noon today and instantly killed. He had a spike maul in his hand and was standing about ten feet from his men when the stroke descended. All of his men, five in number, were severely shocked, one or two being thrown violently to the ground and rendered insensible, but they soon recovered. Moriarty was struck near the heart. The electrical current followed down his left leg and tore his shoes and stockings into shreds. His watch chain was burned in two and the case of his watch melted.

The following was received last week:
HAILEY, Idaho, July 21, 1889.
