Portland, and in one instance six shillings. This difference will enable wheat operators in Tacoma to pay three cents per bushel higher for wheat than his competitor can who loads in Portland. This state of affairs has been brought about by the asininity of the Union Pacific management of the O. R. & N. This is a nice legacy to leave to a proud city of 50,000 inhabitants; its shipping point 150 miles to the north-ward; simply and entirely because the O. R. & N.
