We ordered the City Superintendent to be guided by the instructions of the Territorial Superintendent, and retain the old books, and we will expect he will faithfully carry out our orders. The matter will undoubtedly be decided finally by the Supreme Court of the State of Washington and our only desire is in conformity with the opinion of the Attorney General of the Territory to make no change in text-books, which action will save the people much annoyance and a great expense. The School Boards of Scattle, Tacoma and other cities and towns of Washington have taken similar action in this matter.
