LIAISON GROUP MEETING

The next Liaison Group meeting will be held in Dublin on Tuesday 29 March starting at 11am.

2. I doubt if we will get a paper in advance of the meeting and I shall indeed be surprised if we get one at the meeting. I am however prepared to believe the various signals that serious work on a paper is now being done in Dublin.

3. The Irish side having made the proposal, I think it is right to respond and there are a number of things in the air which mean that an opportunity to exchange notes with the Irish side could in fact be useful.

4. However I think in the circumstances it is right to field a relatively small team. On the assumption that the meeting is on Tuesday I propose that we field: myself, Mr Watkins, Mr Daniell, and the Ambassador has kindly also agreed to make himself available.
