Dear Mary, (Doyle)

As discussed yesterday, it looks as if my involvement in the Northern discussions will be continuing. I think it would be necessary for all to re-evaluate my position.

So far this year, I have spent 1 day in January, 3 days in March, ^{1 day in May,} and 6 days in June including two meetings in London, one in company with the Taoiseach at his meeting with the Prime Minister, doing what I can only describe as advisory or consultative work.

- M's Doyle confirmed consultancy
- at £116.00 a day, plus expenses
