Dear Stephen,

UK/IRISH BILATERAL: WEDNESDAY 16 JUNE

Thank you for your letter of 8 June. I understand from Sir Robin Butler that the Irish official team which came to London for talks on 9 June was content with the programme arrangements described in your letter.

I see no difficulty with your suggestions. We shall hold the Prime Minister's tete a tete with the Taoiseach and the following plenary in the Cabinet Room. The meeting between the other Ministers from 1805 to approximately 1830 can be held upstairs in the Green Room.

I am copying this letter to Jonathan Stephens (Northern Ireland Office) and Melanie Leech (Cabinet Office).

yours ever,
Roderic
