5th November 1987

Mr. David Alton, M.P.,
House of Commons,
LONDON,
SW1A 0AA.

Just a belated note of thanks for the kind good wishes expressed in your letter.

I found your last visit a most enriching experience and look forward to being able to build with you bridges within our divided community and also across that stretch of water which seems to divide Ulster from the rest of the Kingdom.

Looking forward to seeing you in mid November.

Best wishes in your own courageous work.

Dr. John T. Alderdice
