Mr. J. Alderdice,
Alliance Party of Northern Ireland,
88 University Street,
BELFAST, BT7 1HE.

Dear Sir,

At a recent Council Meeting reference was made to the state of the current talks on the future government of Northern Ireland which, the Council feels, is the first real opportunity for peace in many years.

The Council now wishes to impress upon those involved, the serious position which the Province now finds itself in and asks that all parties get together, without delay, and proceed with these much needed discussions.

Yours faithfully,

District Clerk.

R.G.
