Dear Sir

Thank you for your letter of 21 May 1991 which I received today. I entirely understand and commend the Council for its concern about the current talks on the future of Northern Ireland and the misunderstandings and delays which have plagued us this far.

We regard these "talks" as crucial to the well being to the people of Northern Ireland and vastly more important than any of the subsidiary issues which are holding us back. We all hope and pray and indeed we are working energetically to facilitate the commencement of full scale talks and we welcome and value the commitment of Moyle District Council to this process.

With all good wishes.

Yours sincerely

Dr John F. Alderdice
