

On reading over the proposed agenda it seems clear to me that Paragraph 4 is too restrictive and that after "consideration" it should read "both consequent upon the foregoing and generally".

Later, following representations from the UDUP, I would also propose, to avoid the apparent bias in Item 3, that it now read as follows: "The issue of identity in Northern Ireland and the consequent problems of allegiance".

SIR NINIAN STEPHEN

3/9/92