

5 DECEMBER 1997

cc The Independent Chairmen

TO: THE CHAIRMAN & MEMBERS OF THE BUSINESS COMMITTEE

FROM: THE BRITISH & IRISH GOVERNMENTS

MEETINGS IN LONDON AND DUBLIN

In response to a request from the Business Committee at its meeting on 19 November 1997, the British and Irish Governments in pursuance of Rule 21 propose that meetings should take place in:

- London during week commencing 26 January 1998;
- Dublin on 16, 17 and 18 February 1998.

As soon as the above dates have been approved by the Business Committee the Talks Administration Unit will provide guidance to participants on travel and other arrangements for these meetings.