meetings*

12 August 1993,

Rt Hon John Major MP,
The Prime Minister,
10 Downing Street,
LONDON SW1.

I have become increasingly concerned about the drift and deterioration in politics and security here in Northern Ireland, to the point where I now have very serious concerns which could only be spoken to, by yourself.

You will know that I have not sought to trouble you with matters of lesser import, and of course have met regularly with Sir Patrick Mayhew and his colleagues. The matters to which I refer however, can only be addressed by the Head of the Government, and for this reason, I would respectfully request the opportunity to meet with you, at your convenience, on these questions, and to put to you some possibilities for rescuing the situation.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Dr John T Alderdice
PARTY LEADER
