

Alliance

PRESS RELEASE

Alliance Leader reacts to Major's statement

The Alliance leader reacted to the statement made by the Secretary of State, Mr. Major, that the Alliance had not been invited to the summit in London.

Mr. Major said:

The Alliance leader said that the statement was a "disappointment" and that the Alliance had been invited to the summit in London. He said that the Alliance had been invited to the summit in London and that the Alliance had been invited to the summit in London.

Mr. Major said that the Alliance had been invited to the summit in London and that the Alliance had been invited to the summit in London.

The Alliance leader said that the statement was a "disappointment" and that the Alliance had been invited to the summit in London.

Mr. Major said that the Alliance had been invited to the summit in London and that the Alliance had been invited to the summit in London.