

26 April 1998,

Ms Noreen Mulcahy,
Staff Officer,
Town Clerk's Dept,
Cork Corporation,
City Hall,
CORK,
Republic of Ireland

Just a brief note to thank you for the good wishes you expressed on behalf of the Lord Mayor and Corporation of Cork.

The Good Friday Agreement may not be a perfect settlement, but it is the best we could hope to achieve, and it is a good foundation upon which to build lasting peace. I would be very grateful if you would convey to Comhairleoir McCarthy and An Chomhairle, and also to the City Manager, my appreciation of their kind sentiments.

We all look forward now to the work of building a new tomorrow, together, for all our people.
