

Section 11. The State shall be divided into five judicial districts, for each of which a judge shall be chosen by the qualified electors thereof, whose term of office shall be four years. And there shall be held a district court, in each County, at least twice in each year, to continue for such time in each County as may be prescribed by law. But the Legislature may reduce or increase the number of districts, District Judges, and District Attorneys. This section shall not be construed to prevent the holding of special terms under such regulations as may be provided by law.

Section 12. Every Judge of the District Court shall reside in the District for which he is elected. A Judge of any District Court may hold a District Court in any County at the request of the Judge of the District Court thereof, and, upon the request of the Governor, it shall be his duty to do so; but a cause in the District Court may be tried by a judge pro tempore, who must be a member of the bar, agreed upon in writing by the parties ~~litigant~~ or their attorneys of record, <sup>and</sup> upon to try the cause.
