Meteorologically Speaking. OBSERVER'S OFFICE, Cheyenne, Sept. 4.—The storm which caused the high winds of yesterday and last night was central this morning at 8 o'clock at St. Paul where the barometer stood at 29.41 inches.

TOWN TALK. Gossipy Little Paragraphs Picked Up Throughout the City. The Julesburg murderers are still at large.

Contractor F. M. Sharp is here and will rush in delayed material. Last month's fire record was four blazes. Only one was at all serious.

The Capitol ball team has abandoned the projected Nebraska tour. A special passenger train of delayed Oregon Short Line traffic passed East last night.

Tramps have been driven to shelter by the cold wave. A round up by the police was fruitless. A tipster whispers to THE LEADER that Kildare and Lamerick, cud horses of the Force string, are likely colts.

A squad of very aristocratic Japanese ambassadors were West bound Union Pacific passengers yesterday morning. The stock shipping season is now well on. Cattle are being loaded daily at nearly every shipping point in the territory.

The grading cut on Capitol avenue leaves the street car line high in air, but it will of course be lowered to conform. Fearnought, the Montgomery club cup entry is known to be the opposite of a quitter. His endurance is rather remarkable.

The ladies of St. Mary's Relief Society will hold their monthly meeting at St. Mary's hall this afternoon at the usual hour. President Brown of the convention received at his room last evening suggestions from the several delegations on the formation of committees.

At last evening's meeting of the Alert Hose company there was the regular monthly talk on the remote prospects for the promised new hose house. We are reliably informed that at the reception of the Cotillon club this evening there will be no german. The entertainment will be in the nature of a hop and it is hoped that a general reunion of the members may be had.

D. L. Hall, superintendent for the Overland Park club of Denver, will probably act as starter at the races here this month. He is a very fair man who has had much experience. He acted here two days last year and is now on the Montana circuit.

Dr. Birney, the nose and throat specialist will be at the Hotel Normandy on Monday, September 9, and will remain several months, practically locating here. If you have nose, throat, eye or ear trouble, see him about it as he makes no charges for consultation.

Burnett's Extract at E. S. JOHNSTON & BRO'S. B. B. David, Wholesale & Retail Druggist.

PRESCRIPTIONS CAREFULLY COMPOUNDED. FULL LINE OF PATENT MEDICINES, OILS, PAINTS, INSECT POWDER, FLY PAPER, &c.

Cor. 16th & Eddy Sts. Finest Ice Cream Soda to be Found in Town. Only Pure Fruit Syrups Used.

THE CHANGE EFFECTED.

A New President, Cashier and Assistant in the Cheyenne National. Yesterday the Cheyenne National bank was formally passed under the control of John W. Collins and W. R. Stebbins, the former of whom was the heaviest minority stockholder under the old regime.

Under this arrangement N. R. Davis, former president, and F. E. Addoms, former cashier, retire after having achieved an unqualified success in the banking business. John W. Collins has been a big figure in Wyoming banking business for many years.

When the new cashier is George L. Beard, who began his banking career in Pennsylvania. He came here about six years ago as teller for Stebbins, Post & Co. His great aptitude for the business, his tact in dealing with the customers of the bank and his general popularity soon marked him as a coming man in the banking business.

George F. Morgan received his first banking experience in the First National bank. He went to the Cheyenne bank the first day it opened as its bookkeeper. That position he has since retained, so that his promotion is the reward of long tried services.

The capital stock of the bank will be increased from $100,000 to $150,000 by the first of the year. The present directors of the bank are John W. Collins, W. R. Stebbins, Dr. J. Y. Cowhick, A. G. McGregor and George L. Beard. In addition to the stockholders mentioned as directors are A. G. Collins, president of the First National bank of Hebron, Neb., and A. D. Collins, cashier of a bank in York, Pa.

Monte Cutler has left Denver to again accept a position on the New York World, from which paper he resigned six months ago to become city editor of the Cheyenne Sun. Mr. Cutler is a young man of marked ability and attractive personality. The former will win him dollars and distinction in the newspaper world and the latter friends wherever he may sojourn, if only for a short time.

An inspection of the county jail yesterday in company with Deputy Thomason disclosed the fact that he and Sheriff Martin have the cleanest and best regulated establishment of the sort in the territory. A painting prisoner has operated on the walls of the jail proper, and the cells, doing some modest but excellent decorative work in the latter. Everything about the place is in first class condition.

Cheyenne has produced a colt from a mule. We can do anything in the West.

Cheyenne's shooters at the Denver tournament are winning in every match. Bergerson, Holcombe, Lane and Von Kennel took first money in events Tuesday.

Board. Board in private family $5 per week. Furnished rooms with or without board, 118 East Eighteenth street, near Capitol avenue.

Rev. F. M. Shroun, pastor United Brethren church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 25 lbs. in weight." Arthur Love, manager of Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, beats 'em all and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it. Free trial bottles at B. B. David's drug store. Regular sizes 50c. and $1.00."

PREPARING THE WAY.

Rules for Government of the Convention Adopted.

A Report from the Ways and Means Committee.

Coffeen of Sheridan Declares Himself Gracefully.

FLORAL TRIBUTE. The cool air in convention hall was yesterday morning impregnated with delightful fragrance. The source was two bouquets. One was composed of rare blossoms artistically arranged in a basket; the other of vari-colored aromatic exotics reaching their heads from a modest vase.

For the committee on rules, of which President Brown was chairman, Secretary Burritt submitted a model code for the government of convention deliberations. There was a good natured contest on the rule forbidding smoking. The Laramie county delegation, with the exception of Mr. Morgan, objected to the restriction.

When the afternoon session commenced promptly on time only fourteen members were present. In the absence of Smith of Carbon, Morgan of Laramie was made temporary chairman and the work of the committee of the whole resumed. Consideration of the rules with great care marked the proceedings of the committee of the whole. There was a disposition to perfect the code so soon as possible and at the same time have fair and acceptable rules. With slight amendments the rules were reported to the convention, referred back to the committee, again presented and approved.

The Discovery of Oxygen. "Fixed air" and "combustible air" had been speculated upon, and "the air that is left after combustion" had attracted attention. But the phenomena of this kind, inconsistent as they were with the phlogistic theory, had not been sufficient to overthrow it. The first germ of Lavoisier's theory on these matters was embodied in a sealed packet which he deposited with the academy in 1770. Recognizing that the calculation of metals could not take place without the access of air, and that the freer the access the more rapid the calcination, he "began to suspect," as he expresses himself, that some elastic fluid contained in the air was susceptible, under many circumstances, of fixing itself and combining with metals, and that to the addition of that substance were due calcination and the increase in weight of metals converted into calxes.

From this thought came, after much groping with erroneous conclusions, the idea that air is a compound containing a vital part and another part, and that it is the vital part that is absorbed. The behavior of charcoal when burning in oxygen pointed to the nature of that substance and to the true theory of combustion. This new vital substance, which, uniting with metals, formed calxes, and with other substances generated acids, he calls oxygen, or the acid producer; the air that was left after combustion was azote, or lifeless. The inflammable air, which, combining with oxygen, was found to form water, was called hydrogen. — Popular Science Monthly.

Decorating Wells. The ancient custom of well dressing takes place at Buxton in the third week of June every year. All the fountains and springs are then decorated with boards of various fantastic and tasteful designs. These are covered with moist clay and flowers are inserted, the whole forming a most beautiful mosaic—rich, natural and artistic. The entire town is gay with flags and bunting, triumphal arches span the streets, banners stream from the principal buildings and bands of music incite the merry dancers and other reminders of old English sport into activity. — Once a Week.

IN TROUBLE.

The Northwestern Heads of the Pacific Short Line. A Sioux City dispatch received yesterday says that the Pacific Short Line, which has been actively engaged all summer in getting the first section of 100 miles of its new transcontinental line in readiness for the iron, has run against a snag. It has the rolling stock for construction work all ready and has graded its line up to the right of way of the Chicago & Northwestern at the Nebraska end of the Missouri river bridge.

The Northwestern antagonism was anticipated by the Short Line, but has assumed an unexpected shape. The new line, especially in this territory, will enter into competition with the route which has halted with hailing distance of Wyoming's oil fields.

To Sell Oil Land.

John Landon informs us that he is now working up a deal with a New York syndicate whereby he will get $40,000 and an interest in the company for some oil claims. The syndicate represents lots of money and should they purchase the claims of Mr. L. they will undoubtedly do a large amount of developing at once. It is such men as these that our people wish to see become interested our oil fields—men that will sink wells and make an effort to open up these great basins. The lands in question lies west and northwest of Beasemer, and are considered the cream.

Cholera in Michigan. Dr. F. D. Larko, of Rogers City, Michigan, says the epidemic of last year in Presque Isle county, in which so many persons lost their lives, was cholera dysentery instead of cholera as first reported.

Send two cents in stamps to E. L. Lomas, general passenger agent Union Pacific railway, Omaha, Neb., and secure a copy of Outdoor Sports and Pastimes, containing complete rules for lawn tennis, croquet and base ball; just issued.
