TOWN TALK.

Gossipy Little Paragraphs Picked Up Throughout the City.

The fair association is ready to pay all premiums due.
Henry Harrington has sold to Chas. J. Gross lot 4, block 334; $150.
Geo. W. Wilder (the earl of Sheffield) has wedded a charming young lady of Nebraska.
Minnehaha addition was yesterday sold at auction by Sheriff Martin to satisfy a mortgage.
A marriage license issued yesterday authorizes the union of Scott Hyde and May Windsor.
It is learned that the Tisdale reading netted a $50 net exgr for the county library building fund.
See Dr. Birney, the specialist, about your nose and throat trouble. Room 1, Hotel Normandy.
Arthur Lane, a 17-year old Cheyenne boy married a little girl in Denver Saturday and then hit the breeze.
Receiver Nagle yesterday disposed of a quantity of Swan estate personal and other property at auction and private sale.
Coroner Chaffin has held only two inquests this year. He isn't exactly kicking, but then he says it is "dead tough luck."

Arbitration.

The legislature shall provide for boards of arbitration to have the general powers and attributes of courts. To these bodies shall be submitted differences between organizations or associations of employes and employers. It is the purpose to have these bodies settle all strikes.

Eight Hours.

The eight hour chapter of Jones of Uinta was next tackled. It provides this sort of a day for employes of the state, municipalities and coalmines. Fox thought this was a proper subject for legislation. Potter inquired why the eight hour law was not made to apply to all workmen. Sutherland replied that he could not explain, but was satisfied that eight hours was a sufficient time to be confined in a coal mine. This was a day with stone cutters, and was long enough. Russell of Uinta threw considerable light on the subject. The proposition was presented at the request of coal miners and was designed especially to prevent the employment of young boys long hours when at least a portion of their time should be spent in school. This law would not deter men from working more than eight hours if they so elected, and there would be no trouble about wages as coal was mined at so much a ton. Hoyt of Albany, Smith of Carbon, Coffeen of Sheridan and Jones of Uinta spoke to the question and agreed that with the perils attendant upon coal mining a day of eight hours was enough.

Personal Points.

Rev. Geo. C. Rafter is in Laramie. T. B. Adams is in Laramie on business. Attorney General Donzelman is in Green River. Henry Altman is in Colorado with his sample case. Resident Engineer Gates is in from the Carbon cut-off. Capt. C. F. Humphrey is in Omaha for a short time. R. F. Glover left for Douglas, via Omaha, Sunday. W. S. Weaver and wife and Mrs. Benjamin have gone east. Delegates Ed. J. Morris and Judge East went home Sunday. Mrs. T. B. Hord and Mrs. Tobias are visiting Colorado points. Judge J. M. Davidson is visiting his former home, Fort Collins. Chas. A. Campbell and Maj. Whipple have gone to Horse Creek. Editor Matthews of the Pythian Chronicle, is back from Evanston. Editor Dresser of the Independent, returned to Rock Springs Sunday. M. C. Barrow and wife, the Budget publishers, returned to Douglas yesterday. Superintendent Barr and Division Engineer Patten returned from the west Sunday. Special Agent Bonfils, Col. Stitzer and Timberline Yeager have gone to Johnson county. H. B. Kelly, John Durbin, John Hunter and wife, Colin Hunter, J. Howard Ford, J. C. Spencer and John Thomas left for the north yesterday morning. Superintendent W. E. Green of the Idaho division was here Sunday and a portion of yesterday. Both he and Mrs. Green were loath to leave Cheyenne and their many friends.

United States Magnetic Co.

Magnetic garments, such as liver and kidney belts, ladies' and gents' vests, ladies' abdominal magnetic belts, catarrh and neuralgia caps, lung protectors, sciatic and spinal appliances, leggins, insoles, etc. etc. These garments when properly worn will cure liver, stomach and kidney complaints, rheumatism, lumbago, Saint Vitus' dance, nervous exhaustion, and will prevent congestion of lungs and pneumonia. Over 1,000 persons in Denver are wearing these garments with the best of results. Dr. R. F. Coleman can be seen at the Dyer House.

THAT APPORTIONMENT.

The Legislative Representation Revised Again.

There Shall be a Court of Arbitration in the State.

Foreign Labor, Police Powers, Railways and Telegraphs.

THAT APPORTIONMENT.

The convention monkied with the legislative apportionment bill again yesterday. The house membership was increased to thirty-three and the added members given to Converse, Johnson and Sheridan. Riner of Laramie was in the chair when the committee of the whole had much the same discussion as was reported in this paper Sunday morning. Jeffrey of Laramie dipped in his oratorical speeches to remark that he simply rose to say that the silent majority had not yet passed over the divide and being fully enlightened on the subject under discussion desired that it might come to a vote at an early date. The hint was taken. This is the final legislative apportionment. Albany county, two senators and five representatives; Carbon, two and five; Converse, one and three; Crook, one and two; Fremont, one and two; Johnson, one and two; Laramie, three and six; Sheridan, one and two; Sweetwater, two and three; Uinta, two and three. Sixteen senators and thirty-three representatives. There will be a vigorous protest when Clark of Uinta and the Crook county delegates, who were absent, read the revised apportionment.

ARBITRATION.

The legislature shall provide for boards of arbitration to have the general powers and attributes of courts. To these bodies shall be submitted differences between organizations or associations of employes and employers. It is the purpose to have these bodies settle all strikes.

THE WATER WORKS.

It is Pretty Certain that the Work Will be Completed this Week.

Two carloads of lumber for use in perfecting the city water system were received here Sunday morning. If the inspection is not more severe than usual this will be enough to finish the work. There is every prospect that the connection will be made Friday or Saturday next and that next week the clear and pure water of the underground current will flow through the mains instead of the polluted fluid now furnished consumers.

COCOTTE'S DEFEAT.

It Looks as Though it was Another Case of Dishonest Jockey.

From where this writer sits it looks very much as though Stokes & Whitehouse, owners of Cocotte, were robbed of the Colorado St. Leger at Denver Saturday. It is true that the imported beauty seemed to quit and succumb fourth in a field of five, but with Duffey up, she ran away twice while scoring and went falling after on the jump each time. This looks very queer. Duffey has time and again demonstrated his ability to hold any sort of a horse, and that this docile and tender mouthed filly should be allowed to break away and then repeat it seems strange, to say the least. Cocotte was well liked in the pools by outsiders, and her owners had laid $300 that she would get a better place than Sympathetic's Last, with Gagan aboard. The Last was home third. The thing would bear investigation. Duffey was while here the crony of jobbers and accompanied them to Denver.

"Old Lavender."

There is a peculiar flavor about Edward Harrigan's plays that strikes a responsive chord in the breasts of high and low, rich and poor. Even into the scenes where he depicts wretchedness and degradation he throws a gleam of humor which lightens the gloom. It is indeed a happy faculty which the author possesses to adorn a moral with a piquant freshness which makes it always attractive to an audience. Old Lavender sinks to the depths but there is always an inherent dignity in his old battered carcass which, while it merits pity, never wins contempt. Perhaps he forgives his brother too freely and too generously in the last act, but in the hands of Harrigan it seems the most natural thing in the world for him to do. Mr. Harrigan is a finished artist. He always seems to do the right thing at the right time and in the right way.
