ONE OF THE LOST ARTS.

Secret of the Process for Making Aluminum from Clay Dies with Its Inventor.

B. H. Sullivan is the name of Dakota's new surveyor general.

The Mitchell Daily Republican has entered upon its seventh year.

Water town will spend $10,000 beautifying its streets and boulevards.

The South Dakota Democratic convention is called to meet at Huron Sept. 4.

Over thirty Lower Brule Indians have signed the treaty since the commission left agency.

Hanlin county, S. D., Republicans, in convention, endorse Governor Mellette for a second term.

Sam Jones and Sam Small have been engaged to stump South Dakota for the prohibition.

At Kimball, Prof. W. A. Ward made a balloon ascension, and when a mile from earth descended safely with a parachute.

James Corlett, register of the Grand Forks land office, appointed by President Cleveland, has sent his resignation to Washington.

The Millbank, Egan and Sioux City, and the Duluth, Minn., Huron and Chamberlain roads were incorporated at Huron last week.

The Mitchell Sun has been sold to E. S. Johnson, formerly of The Mount Vernon, and will be published as a Republican in politics and for prohibition.

The Northwestern, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and the Yankton and Norfolk roads will build spur tracks from Yankton to the cement works, a distance of five miles.

The famous suit of S. Larson, a hotel-keeper, against The Grand Forks armaments, has been settled for $1 or $999 less than the amount sued for in the complaint.

K. K. Murzin and Municipal Secretary Bhavnagar, Kathlanwad, India, are at Fargo. They are in the Northwest by authority of their government to investigate methods of wheat raising and harvesting.

Judge Tripp passed an opinion on the new law which regards the issuance of saloon licenses to cities working under special charters. He holds that license must be returned from the county as well as to the city.

Charles Pettibone & Co., have just completed the Sioux Falls directory. It contains 4,913 names—an increase of 1,500, or 40 percent, over last year.

A will man has been captured on the Crow Creek reservation. He had been wandering about for days, and was almost naked. He was eating old bones that he had found on the prairie. He cannot tell what his name is or whence he came.

A correspondent at Grafton starts the world with the statement that the wheat crop of Dakota is 20,000,000 bushels short. The total production of the territory cannot, under the best possible conditions, be more than 100,000,000 bushels, and to put it that high is a liberal estimate.
