Secretary.

St. John will each assist in the prohibition campaign in South Dakota.

----THE papers have already begun agitating the question of a world's fair to be held in 1892, the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America, and G. Pease, C. W. Johnson. Chicago thinks she is large enough Pleasant Twp., Ferguson School House for the place where.

THE Constitutional Convention has Lake Township, Mercer School House apportioned South Dakota into into eight judicial districts, of which the sixth consists of the Counties of Sully, Hand, Hyde, Hughes, Potter, Faulk, Edmunds, Walworth, Campbell, Mc-Pherson and Stanley counties.

--- $A\tau$ a prohibition meeting held by the colored orator John II. Hector, in Bids to Furnish County Supplies Hand county, a black prohibition pig was donated to the cause. At his next meeting Mr. Hector put the pig up at auction and by fine management it was sold for \$36.00, and now the St. Lawrence Journal appropriately remarks: "May South Dakota become famous, indeed, for pork and prohibition.

To the Goddard Correspondence in the Pierre Signal.

In the Pierre Signal of July 19th. is a notice of the temperance meeting held at the Stokes school house in which the author says: "This neighborhood was visited by a few of the big guns from Onida, such as that burg can afford. * " They were Messrs, H. E. Kimmel, Geo. Everts. Owen and wife. * The speakers began by comparing virtuous Sully with unvirtuous Hughes, to the great detriment of the latter county. They claimed that the 130 cases docketed at the last term of court for Hughes county were all caused by liquor. They then added that the virtuous Sully had held no court at all and that there were only 30 cases docketed and that none of them were caused by

Then to put the cap sheaf on they claimed that Sully county had as much if not more population than Hughes and a string of nonsense like the above which any ten year old school boy knows to be untrue. There were over half of them that could not 1889, viz: see the point which proved that they were not all chumps and cranks by any means.

The correspondent from Goddard who wrote the item, a part of which is above quoted, has succeeded in showing the badness of his heart by the language he uses, by the disregard he shows for the feelings of men and by his desire to create a feeling in Hughes county against the people of his own county. He accuses men like H. E. Kimmel, our County Auditor; Judge Everts, one of the Trustees of the Madison Normal School, of talking nonsense and telling what is not true and of being chumps and cranks. He ventures to tell what was said at the meeting which he did not attend and wilfully misrepresents it. He resorts to the tactics usually adopted by the rum power and its imps (one of which he is), that is to lie and intimidate, and no doubt he would go for them as his friends did in Sioux City, Iowa, if he had a little backing and were not he had a little backing and were not too cowardly. He is a well known exsaloon keeper whose saloon was kicked out of Iowa and he has been sour with good men ever since, and if reports be true, with his family, too. The facts are that the meeting was a rousing good one, and nothing was said disparaging of Hughes county by any of the speakers, and the audience were well pleased and more confirmed in the belief that the schools which produce such men as the author of that item should be eternally closed.
