

THE KETCHUM KEYSTONE

SATURDAY - JULY 6, 1889

Yesterday's New York quotations - Silver, 92; Lead, $4 00.

Try a "schooner" of Salt Lake beer; you can get it at Jerome's.

Our Ketchum neighbors are our true friends. Dispatches of sympathy poured in on us during the entire day yesterday. - News-Miner.

A. ADAMS, the well-known lumber dealer, has over 300,000 feet of dressed and undressed lumber on hand, at his saw mill. His prices for different kinds of lumber are reasonable and never vary, fire or no fire.

JAMES H. CAMERON, formerly assistant to Thomas Fleming in the blacksmithing and repairing business in Ketchum, has bought out the business and now has sole control of that well-known stand. See advertisement in another column.

UNTIL the blood is cleansed of impurities, it is useless to attempt the cure of any disease. Rheumatism, which is traceable to an acid in the blood, has been cured, in numerous cases, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, external treatment being of no avail.

MAYOR FRED J. KIESEL, of Ogden, arrived in Ketchum yesterday. Mayor Kiesel was one of the principal owners in the Idaho Forwarding Company's store at Hailey which was lately destroyed by fire. Although having met with quite a loss by the fire, it will take more than one effort of the elements to down Mayor Kiesel's indomitable energy and perseverance.

THREE or four of our prominent citizens concluded to take in the race and celebration of the Fourth at Bellevue. When they were ready to return home, one of their party turned up missing, and consequently he got left, and feeling somewhat concerned as to the whereabouts of his comrade, and also fearing something dreadful may have befallen him, have requested the KEYSTONE to give a slight description of the missing one, as follows: Blond complexion, pigeon-toed, knock-kneed, bow-legged and inclined to be bare-footed upon the top of his head. Anyone furnishing information about the missing man will receive the thanks of the friends, and possibly be treated to a bottle of ink.

The New Discovery. You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery never after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial Bottle Free at Steward Bros' Drug Store.

On Wednesday evening deputy sheriff McPhie came up from Hailey in search of three or four suspicious characters who were suspected of having been pilfering goods in Hailey after the fire. He intercepted them here and arrested them and gave them a night's lodging in the jail. But not being able to procure sufficient evidence against them to hold them, he was obliged to release them the next morning. They loitered about town in a very suspicious manner all day on the fourth. One of them worked upon the sympathy of our citizens on the plea of having burned his arm while helping to save property at the Hailey fire, and succeeded in collecting over $20, which he hastened to exchange for beer for the party. After the money and beer were both gone, one of his pals betrayed the fact that the burn on the fellow's arm was produced with hot bacon-fat, by himself, for the purpose of raising money on which to celebrate. Yesterday two of them were rearrested here and again given quarters in the jail on the ground of vagrancy. The other two went to Hailey and it is reported that they, too, were arrested and are now reposing in the seclusion of the Hailey jail. There are quite a number of such gentry roaming the country this summer, and people should exercise a little caution in keeping their doors locked and not allowing articles that are easily carried off to be around where they may be a temptation to light-fingers.

Notice. The members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union are respectfully urged to be present at the Annual Meeting, which will be held in the Methodist Church this (Saturday) afternoon at half past three o'clock, as business of importance will be transacted by the Union, and it is desirable that all the members be in attendance.

Mail Service. Postmaster-General Wanamaker has ordered mail service six times a week from Ketchum, via Dickey, to Clayton, commencing on the 1st day of August next and continuing until June 30, 1890. The schedule time each way, fifteen hours. Proposals for bids for performing the service will be received by Postmaster Williams, at Ketchum, until July 12th. This order provides, as will be seen, for an all-the-year service, which has been so much needed.

MINING NOTES.

W. H. Atkinson had a lot of ore from the Antarctic mine, on East Fork, sampled at the Ketchum sampling works this week, which yielded at the rate of 600 ounces silver per ton.

Another shipment of 10,000 pounds of ore from the Star of Hope was received at the Sampler last Wednesday.

Matt Womack brought in 10,000 pounds of ore this week from the Eureka mine at Seafoam, which sampled 108 ounces silver and $5 gold per ton.

Car lot No. 6, of Silver King ore was shipped last Wednesday. Two more car lots will be delivered to the sampler during the week. Major Hyndman has arrangements perfected for transportation of fifty tons per week from the mine, and expects to be delivering one hundred tons of ore per week to railroad depot at Ketchum in a short time. The average amount of the six cars of ore shipped was fifteen tons per car, valued at $300 per ton. How is this for leasing operations and systematic management?

Fire in Hailey.

About 1 o'clock in the morning of July 2d a fire broke out in the Nevada hotel in Hailey, and as a stiff breeze was blowing from the northwest it carried the flames rapidly to the buildings adjoining, from whence the burning brands were taken up by the wind which scattered the fire in spite of all efforts to check it. The brick buildings crumbled beneath the flames, apparently as fast as the wooden ones. In a very short time, four blocks, the entire business portion of Hailey, except Swift & Regan's general merchandise house and Friedman's dry goods store, were in a solid sheet of flame and beyond human control, and in two hours' time there was nothing left of those seemingly substantial business houses but a heap of smoldering ruins. The loss is estimated to be in the neighborhood of half a million dollars, though it may be found to be more when affairs come to be regulated a little. Of course everything is still in great confusion. The aggregate insurance is about $150,000. Many of those who had been insured and whose policies had run out were waiting in the hopes to have a re-adjustment of values and a reduction of terms before renewing their insurance. All that is left of the National Bank is the vault. When that became cool, it was opened and everything found to be perfectly preserved, and not in the least damaged by the fierce heat it had been subjected to.

Fire at Bonanza.

The Challis Messenger of the 2d inst., gives an account of a fire which took place at Bonanza on the 26th ult., entirely destroying three buildings and their contents. How the fire originated the Messenger says, is not known, but the general supposition is that the fire was caused by "Cow Boy Joe," a courtesan, who had been on a drunken spree for several days, and while in an inebriated condition had overturned a lighted lamp. Three buildings were totally consumed by the fire, viz: A store house owned by George McGowan, stored with hay, grain, butter and other produce, a large saloon building known as the Fargo building, and the house occupied by "Cow Boy Joe." The Messenger adds, that had it not been for the timely assistance and the protection Bonanza possesses in the way of water in case of fire, the greater portion of the town would have been destroyed.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge, Munday, Esq., Atty. at Law, Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life." Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters." This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c. and $1, at Steward Bros' Drug Store.

ROUND trip tickets to the National Educational Association meeting at Nashville, Tenn., from July 8th to 20th. A rate of $70 90 will be given from Ketchum to Nashville and return. Tickets on sale July 1st to 16th; good for returning until September 30th.

A DISPATCH from Niagara Falls dated July 1st says that Mr. Graham's patent boat, a description of which the KEYSTONE published last week, in which he was to have gone over the falls on the above date, was not in it. If he ever really entertained the idea of going over, a glimmering of sense returned in time to save his life. He took the boat to Chippewa, Ontario, Sunday afternoon, put it in the river and let it go alone. It went over Horse-shoe Falls and was broken into a dozen pieces before it reached the whirlpool, where its demolition was completed.

ALL efforts to check the prairie fire which started in Cascade county near Semea Coules, Montana, a few days ago, were unavailing until after an area of over a hundred square miles had been burned over.

A Complete Success.

The celebration of the 4th of July at the GUYER HOT SPRINGS was the most successful of any such event ever occurring at that popular resort. No formal programme had been prepared, but everyone was invited to have a good time in their own way. Lawn tennis and croquet grounds were prepared for all who wished to indulge in those games. The grounds were in perfect condition and it was pure enjoyment to sit in the shade of the grand old trees and watch the crowd. And a crowd there was. Ketchum was almost deserted as nearly everybody went to the Springs, while a constant procession of vehicles all the afternoon brought guests from Hailey, Bellevue and Broadford. The Hailey Band came up late in the afternoon and played a few pieces before the dancing began. In the evening the grounds were lighted by immense numbers of Chinese lanterns, and dancing was indulged in until a late hour. The floor of the dancing pavilion had been put in perfect order. Prof. Delius' orchestra furnished the music, and as the evening was delightfully cool after the intense heat of the day, the conditions were perfect for making dancing a delight, and it was enjoyed to the utmost. Mr. and Mrs. Morrill were unremitting in their efforts to make everything pleasant for their guests, and were ably seconded by all their assistants. The dinner furnished in the afternoon and the supper in the evening were each delicious, and presented every delicacy of the season, prepared in the most appetizing manner. Ice-cream, cake and lemonade, for the excellence of which GUYER HOT SPRINGS has become famous this season, were to be had at all hours of the day and evening. Altogether it was a "red letter day." Not a single unpleasant event, or disagreeable jar marred the pleasure of the day, and it will long be held in pleasant remembrance by everyone who spent the "glorious Fourth" at the GUYER HOT SPRINGS.

Wild Flowers.

Last Saturday Mr. T. B. Shaw, of Sawtooth, sent down by the stage a large wooden box filled with beautiful wild flowers from the vicinity of Sawtooth. They were of the Mallow family, but of a species entirely new to science. Professor Green, of the University of California, when examining a collection of plants from Sawtooth containing specimens of this flower, declared it to be the most interesting plant in the collection. The flowers grow in tall racemes, clustered on short stems along the leafy main stalk, and are of various colors, some being of a pale pink, others a light purple, while some are almost white. In large clusters they resemble masses of apple blossoms, while a single graceful spray in a vase by itself, is "a thing of beauty" and "a joy forever." Not quite forever, but they remain beautiful a long time. They begin flowering from the bottom of the spray, and when gathered just as the first blossoms are out, the upper buds will unfold gradually, and if the stems are kept in plenty of fresh water, will remain beautiful for a week or two. A plant very similar in appearance grows up Warm Springs creek, and probably in other localities near here, but it differs slightly in botanical structure from its Sawtooth relative. Thanks to Mr. Shaw's careful packing, the flowers were not even withered by their long stage journey. An immense bouquet of them ornamented the table at the ice-cream festival given by the ladies of the temperance society last Saturday evening.

IDAHO NEWS.

The Idaho Recorder tells a thrilling snake story which, divested of ornaments, runs as follows: Dr. Kenney, Thos. Pope, Miss Carrie Kenney and Miss Dora Pope, while going from Gibbonsville to Salmon City one day last week, met an enormous rattlesnake, measuring 12 feet in length. The ladies were some distance in advance of their escorts and came upon the snake first. They were naturally much alarmed and called for help. Miss Pope's horse was also frightened and in stepping about put his foot on the snake just as Dr. Kenney rushed up with club and pistol. The doctor soon killed the huge snake. The Recorder adds: Miss Kenney has the snake on exhibition, charging 25 cents to look at him, the proceeds to be used for building a road between Boyle's ranch and North Fork.

Blackfoot News: Early this morning news was brought to town of the drowning of two little boys, sons of George P. Howell who lives on Blackfoot river, two miles north of Blackfoot and Fort Hall bridge. The little fellows herded the milk cows, and yesterday evening the cows came home without them. Search was made at once and their clothing was found on the bank of the river near a deep hole. Their bodies have not been recovered.

Shoshone Journal: In the justice court this week quite an excitement was caused over the arrest of John Creswell on the charge of abduction. It appears from the evidence that he took Ellie Doran from her parents, without their consent, and married her. As the girl was under 16 years of age her parents interfered. At the trial a large number of witnesses were examined, and after a lengthy hearing of the case Creswell was found guilty and fined $10 and costs, which he paid and was discharged. The young wife refused to live with her husband, and returned home with her parents. - A load of flour for the Johnstown sufferers passed through Shoshone yesterday. The flour was the gift of the citizens of Baker City.

Idaho Herald: A rather novel boat may be seen on the Port Neuf. It has paddle wheels worked with cranks and a small boy as motive power, and gets over the water in great shape. The inventors, Frank Preston and Ed Stevenson, have named it the Wood River. - On last Thursday, Mrs. J. Nelson, of Montpelier, who had had a difficulty with her husband, Wednesday, from which her face and eyes were blackened, left her home and three small children, the eldest five years old and the youngest scarce five months old, for Bear river, about two miles distant from her home. She then waded into the river to a depth of about eighteen inches of water, and then laid face downward and with both hands clinched to the rocks committed the act that caused her death, by drowning. - About sixty carloads of stock is being transferred daily at this point, in transit for the summer ranges, the most of which are cattle.

Elmore Bulletin: Fred Sibley, a horse-buyer from Albion, Mich., met with a sad and singularly fatal accident at Old Glenn's Ferry Wednesday of last week. When last seen alive he borrowed a rifle from Aiken Bros. to go out on a hunt. At 11 o'clock A. M. James Boreland, who had gone to the ferry house, found the body of the man lying on the bank of the river, but thinking him yet alive, ran to town and informed C. C. Glenn of the matter. Mr. Glenn notified Justice Sinnott, who called Dr. Ratty and the three proceeded to the scene of the accident. When they arrived they found the body dead and life had been extinct for at least two hours. The body was lying in a twisted position with the muzzle of the rifle between his knees, and pointed toward his head. His feet were in the water, and against the front end of a skiff. Dr. Ratty examined the surroundings and gave as his opinion that the deceased had stepped out of the skiff and then reached for the rifle, taking it by the barrel, the muzzle pointed toward him. In taking the gun out thus, the hammer became caught against the edge of the skiff and the rifle exploded. The ball entered the right eye and came out at the back of the head. Death must have been instantaneous. Deceased was about thirty-two years old.

Cassia Times: From the looks of things at present there will be little use for thrashing machines in the valley this year. - The movement looking to the formation of a gigantic association to raise the river at Storry's Ferry, or rather Rapid City, and to locate a town-site is the most absorbing topic of conversation at present. - A fruit peddler from Utah was this week jerked up for peddling out foreign raised fruit without licence. This is exactly right, if we wish to encourage the fruit industry in our own midst. Our people generally are a little too careless in this matter, and it is not alone with fruit vendors. Taking a broader scope, there are quite a few who are in the habit of sending away for articles of dress goods, dry goods, etc. Citizens expect their merchants to contribute to every subscription paper for public or charitable objects, as well as pay their taxes, insurance and various other expenses of maintaining respectable marts of trade. It is no less incumbent on the people generally to shut the door in the faces of peddlers and foreign dealers in merchandise and give all orders to established merchants at home. It is poor policy to fly after "bargains" offered by foreign dealers which often turn out expensive to the purchasers. The right way and the safe way is to make your purchases with the home dealer.

[We agree with the sensible remarks of the Times in regard to sending out of the country for articles of merchandise. If the people would spend their money at home, instead of sending it out of the country it would enable our home merchants and dealers to keep larger stock and greater varieties and thus be able to supply the needs of the people better than they can under the present state of affairs. - Ed. KEYSTONE.]

NO MATTER what may be the ills you bear from indigestion, a dose of Ayer's Cathartic Pills will ease you without question. Just try them once and be assured; they have much worse dyspeptics cured. You will find them nice and amply worth the price.

The sad calamity through fire which has fallen upon our sister of Hailey, must be almost an overwhelming calamity to the people of that young town. During the last year Hailey has been subjected to cruel treatment—but her energetic people have kept good courage, until now comes a blow which we fear must be crushing. Hailey we are sure will in this devastation have the sympathy of every citizen of the Territory, and all previous enemies be forever buried. - Statesman.
