MEKE MENTION.

From the daily of Friday.
Visitors from the East say it is Indian summer.
Olympia Republicans are beginning to wear beaver hats.
The framework of the Hoffman building was raised today.
Painters have commenced work on
Mrs. Hale's new building.
Delicious eating and cooking apples are coming plentifully into market.
All signs may fall in dry weather but to-morrow's new moon presages a change of weather.
Alexander Farquhar has begun to paint his big store and he expects to use over a ton of pigments on the job.
Mr. George Forbes has just completed a large building near the long bridge, and he is acting as a carpenter's shop.
The STANDARD is much pleased to greet its old friend Dr. Calloun, of Lacrosse, who is upon a visit of reconciliation.

The present week opened the grain harvest and for several weeks there will be a dearth in the city of people from the country.
The grouse and pheasant shooting season will open in a few days, when the woods will be found full of hunters and frightened birds.
Mr. Joseph Young, a brother of Mr.
E. T. Young, the popular hotel proprietor of this city, has returned from a visit of a year's duration in Canada, his boyhood home.
The Signal Service office reports, minimum thermometer, 53 degrees; maximum thermometer, 84 degrees;
weather, cloudless, no rain; barometer steady, at 30.05 inches.
"Clams and politics," is the way down Sound papers speak of last Tuesday's race of Francis and sixth recovery, a feast of reason and flow of soul, a veritable symposium, and nothing short.
An unimportant decision of the School Superintendent, made last month, has been appealed to the County Commissioner for final adjustment at their session which convenes a week from next Monday.
Prof. J. M. Abbott, recently from California, has been engaged to be teacher of the Commercial Department of the Olympia College Institute, during the coming college year. A full list of the entire staff will be announced in due time.
Capt. J. T. Brown is again among them. He will remain a few days, and then return to California, where he is at present staying on sick leave.
The Captain's health was seriously impaired by the constant service and onerous duties of Grand Secretary of the A. O. U. W., and his present efforts to direct the work of a telegraph and a telephone office, and his warm and genuine devotion to his duties when Capt. B. visits Olympia, his old home.

Our Law Framers.

THURSDAY, July 25th, (concluded).
The Convention met, the President in the chair.
Power moved that the privileges of the floor be extended to Dr. Calloun.
