

16 December 1993

Dear Prime Minister

I wanted before departing for Nigeria to drop you a personal note of congratulation on the historic agreement which you concluded yesterday with the Taoiseach. I have made a short public statement hailing the Declaration and I attach a copy for your information. Clearly, the next steps will not be easy but your initiative has shown great courage and statesmanship and you deserve the fullest possible support.

With deep respect

Yours Sincerely

Emeka.

Emeka Anyaoku
